intendent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with his estimable family, has again taken up his residence at Empalme, where he is again making his headquarters.

Judge M. Marsteller, Democratic candidate for Superior Judge, is back from a prospecting trip in the country. He reports indications favorable for striking dividend-paying ore on September 8th.

This morning Police Judge Smith dismissed the case against the German American who last night wiped the earth up with a Russia Jew. His Honor evidently thought the night police had arrested the wrong man.

Russia and Germany clashed in a Morley avenue restaurant last night, when Germany demanded that Russia apologize for insulting America. Germany was an easy winner, and no more trouble is anticipated.

W. B. Hart, manager of Dave Loeb's popular store, is back from his summer vacation, spent with relatives and friends in the north and northwest. Bill returned as brown as a berry, looking the picture of health.

Mr. Jeffries, sales manager for Phil C. Brannen, the Tucson haberdasher, spent Tuesday in Nogales, returning the same night, with Hi Corbett, the lumber man. Jeff said he enjoyed his visit, and promised to return.

Major von Petersdorff is visiting in the city, from California, where he has been sojourning the past year. The major formerly resided at Cananea, during which time he visited Nogales many times. His old-time friends are glad to see him.

John Henderson, Jr., arrived in the city Thursday evening from Caborca, Sonora, and will spend a couple of days here with his father Mr. John Henderson.
He reports the mine looking fine, with thousands of tons of good shipping ore in sight.

Thursday W. G. Bowman, candidate for sheriff, returned from a business visit to the Imperial valley and Los Angeles. He will now devote all his spare time to rounding up Democratic voters, and next week will visit his friends in the country.

Frank Wilkie, popular efficient employee in The First National Bank of Nogales, is getting along fine at the St. Joseph's hospital, where Dr. Smelker last week performed a successful operation, as a result of which Frank is now short one troublesome appendix.

Friends of Ben Sneed, the well known Douglas cowman, will be pleased to learn that he is getting along fine in California, and will soon be able to return home. Ben is one of the best cow experts in the country, as well as one of the best fellows on earth.

This morning Geo. H. Fiedler, member of the Common Council of Nogales, departed for Em-palme, where he goes on business for the Southern Pacific of Mexico. He is in charge of the Espee roundhouse in Nogales, Arizona, and is a pastmaster in the business.

Beginning today through train service from Nogales to Guaymas will be inaugurated on the Southern Pacific of Mexico. Trains will leave Nogales on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays for the south, at 6:30 a. m. and are due to arrive at Guaymas at 8 p. m. From Guaymas, the north bound trains will leave on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 6 a. m. arriving at Nogales at 8:45 p. m.

Richard Zellner, the Los Angeles piano man, who possibly has sold more pianos in southern Arizona during the past dozen years, than all other salesmen combined, is a business visitor in Nogales, having arrived Thursday from Douglas. He reports business in the Smelter City fine.

The Nogales Lumber Company have leased from the Southern Pacific, the big lot on Court street, between Morley and Grand avenues, and next week an experienced lumber man will arrive in the city to take charge of the new lumber company's business. Attention is called to the announcement of the new company in THE BOR-DER VIDETTE.

The forepart of the week A.
M. Conard, president and general manager of the Sonora Copper Smelting Company, accompanied by Mrs. Conard and the children, returned from Los Angeles. Tuesday morning Manager Conard, who was met here by Superintendent Fred.
Alford, continued on south to Cobre Grande, the company's big copper properties near Noria.

Mr. Kenneth Kennedy, for a long time head bookkeeper and accountant for the Three R, spent a couple of days in the city this week, from camp. The gentleman's Democratic friends are urging him to announce himself as a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court, an office he is thoroughly competent to fill. Besides being an expert bookkeeper, Mr. Kennedy is an experienced stenographer.

Hon. George W. Atkinson and Tom Casanaga, two of the county's most prominent, successful stockraisers, spent Thursday in Nogales. Mrs. Atkinson and family are spending the summer at their splendid ranch home near Calabasas. During the winter months they make their home in Tucson, where they have a fine residence. Mr. Joe Deegan, Mr. Atkinson's partner, accompanied the gentlemen to the city.

Tuesday morning a bunch of thirteen Mexican political refugees from Guaymas, were escorted to the international line by a squad of constitutionalist soldiers, and told to "beat it." The "undesirables" after being manifested by the United States immigration officers, were permitted to go their way, rejoicing, and now the United States has thirteen more inhabitants who will cuss President Wilson for not intervening in Mexico.

C. V. Fowler, one of Nogales' most successful young businessmen, has returned from Los Angeles, feeling fine and happy.
He reports his wife doing nicely, after having undergone a very successful operation in one of Los Angeles' famous hospitals.
At the time of the operation, the lady's brother, Dr. W. F. Chenoweth, of this city, one of the best known physicians in the state, was with his sister. Dr.
Chenoweth has also returned home.

After three weeks delightfully spent at the home of her brother, E. D. Miller, editor of THE BOR-DER VIDETTE, Mrs. Eugene Schroff, of Pennsylvania, departed yesterday for Tempe, where she will visit her brother, Curt W. Miller, editor of the Tempe News. From Tempe
Mrs. Schroff will go to California, thence east. It has been many years since "Little Sister" and her brothers met and needless to say their meeting will long be pleasantly remembered.

H. S. Corbett, of Tucson, member of the big J. Knox Corbett Lumber Company, and Monte Mansfeld, another wide-awake, twenty century businessman of the ancient and honorable pueblo, last Tuesday motored up to Nogales, and after transacting important business here, returned home the same night. Mr. Corbett was met here by E. R. Briggs, manager of the Patagonia branch of the mammoth Tucson lumber company, who makes his headquarters in Patagonia.

C. A. Hartman, general manager of the Oro Colorado Mining Company, owning a group of gold claims north of Nogales a few miles, on which considerable profitable work has been recently done under Mr. Hartman's personal supervision, departed for Denver the forepart of the week expecting to be gone a month or six weeks. Besides the gold claims, the Oro Colorado Mining Company has a number of other claims in the famous Patagonia district, said to possess considerable merit.

Lieutenant A. L. P. Johnson, of the 5th U. S. cavalry and Mrs. Johnson, nee Elena Mix, left Thursday afternoon for Honolulu, where Lieut. Johnson is stationed. Accompanying them is Leandro, the young son of Mayor L. W. Mix, who will spend a year in the Islands.
Capt. Mix escorted the party to Tucson.

The Nogales Electric Light, Ice & Water Company is busy circulating a numerously signed initiative petition asking for an election to be held on the granting of a franchise for the manufacture and sale of electricity to the people of this city. The proposition came up before the Common Council about ten days ago, and the matter laid on the table for six months. The applicants for the franchise were greatly disappointed at the action of the council, and now will get the franchise before the people by the initiative.

Thursday Harry Lawton, general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, departed for the south, in his private car "Tepic." Many employees of the various departments of the company, are returning to Empalme, to again make that place their headquarters. General Superintendent H. J. Temple and his chief assistant, Jack Williams, will again make Empalme their headquarters. Thursday Train Dispatcher Van Wye went to Empalme. Everybody in Nogales will be sorry to see the railway boys leave.

Dr. John Henry Beckett, this week received from President Wilson his appointment as a first lieutenant in United States medical corps, and whenever his country needs him for active service, Lieutenant Beckett will be found ready and willing to respond to the call. We congratulate both Dr. Beckett and Uncle Sam, feeling confident neither will ever regret the contract recently made. Naturally Lieutenant Beckett is proud of the sheep skin just received from one of the greatest presidents this country ever had or ever will have, Woodrow Wilson.

Col. George Burrow, always really and truly of his beloved Del Rio, Texas, but a short time a resident of Nogales, was a stop-over visitor between trains, here Thursday. He brought with him untold wealth of which he was the custodian for Wells Fargo Co., for which he has worked in a confidential capacity for a number of years. The money, two great closely guarded boxes of it, was consigned to the constitutionalists in Sonora, and it goes without saying it reached its destination in safety.
Mr. Burrow, while here was the welcome guest of his friend Lee Reagan and family, also of Del Rio, who for a number of years have made Nogales their home.

Nogales was visited this week by a number of prominent Republicans from the country, among them being E. H. Evans of Patagonia, Attorney Hummel of Elgin, C. B. Wilson of Sanford, and William E. Bowers of Canille. The gentlemen came to attend Monday evening's meeting of Santa Cruz county Republicans, at which Attorney Hummel was nominated as a candidate for the office of Judge of the Superior Court, S. F.
Noon for County Attorney, Ed.
Mix for clerk of the court, William McKnight for sheriff, and Messrs. Wilson and Bowers for supervisors. Henry Stewart was nominated for constable of Nogales Precinct No. 1. The get-together meeting was presided over by H. Gordon Gloire, assisted by Attorney Arthur de Riemer, who acted as secretary.

This morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart, in this city, the Rev. Father Duval, officiating Mr. J. H. McDonald of Los Angeles, and Miss Frances Evangelina Brickwood, one of Nogales' loveliest daughters, were united in marriage, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends of the happy bride and groom. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Third Regiment, Mexican constitutionalist band, of which Professor Soto, many years a resident of this city, is band master. When the bride was a bit of a girl, Professor Soto, who has for years been a friend of the Brickwood family, promised little "Panchita" that he would claim the honor of furnishing the music at her wedding.
This morning he kept his promise. To the newly wedded couple, we extend hearty congratulations, wishing them a long and happy life as man and wife.
